Integrated Research and Action for Development

Job Title: Research Assistant (Job code: IRADe/SDTT/RA)

Number of Positions: Two (One in New Delhi and one to be posted near project site(s))

Email ID to send the applications: jobs@irade.org

Last date to receive the applications: 31st July 2013

Essential Qualification:

- Master Degree in Agricultural Economics/Economics/Rural Development
- Knowledge of statistical software (SPSS, STATA) and MS Office
- One year research experience in field

Desirable:

- Experience in collection, compilation/analysis of statistical data, computer skills and preparation of project report of primary data
- Good communication skills in local /Hindi/English language

Job Responsibilities:

- Investigate into the rural, agriculture in the flood prone area of Eastern Uttar Pradesh in India through collection of quality data in the following district. (Bahreich, Shravasti, Balrampur, Siddharthnagar, Maharajgunj, Kushinagar, Deoria)
- Provide feedback from the village to the research team at IRADe to improve the questionnaires and also to fill the gaps unearthed by quantitative data.
- Collection of field data, management of field investigators, verification of data, filtering and cleaning of the data.
- Facilitate data collection (Secondary, primary), preliminary statistical analysis, data entry and preparation of master table for analysis.

Remuneration: Will be commensurate with experience and expertise.

Interested and eligible candidates may apply with a detailed CV comprising of past experience and three references with a position code at jobs@irade.org