

In the lead-up to the Paris Climate Change Conference (COP21) in December this year, the Embassy of France in India is organizing a monthly seminar series in New Delhi entitled “The Road to Paris: COP21 Dialogues”.

The seminar series will provide a platform for addressing a range of themes and issues that are relevant to the upcoming negotiations in Paris and seek to stimulate constructive discussions on these themes from the perspective of Indian stakeholders.

Organized in partnership with IRADe (Integrated Research and Action for Development), the fourth conference of the “COP21 Dialogues” series will ask the question:

“How can long-term and sustained financing be structured for mitigation and adaptation?”

The speakers for this theme will be:

- Mr. Dipak Dasgupta, Alternate Member of the Board, Green Climate Fund
- Ms. Namita Vikas, Senior President and Chief Sustainability Officer, Yes Bank
- Mr. K.S. Popli, Chairman & Managing Director, IREDA (TBC)
- A representative from the government of India (TBC)

The session will be inaugurated by H.E. Mr François Richier, Ambassador of France to India, and moderated by Dr Jyoti K Parikh, Executive Director, IRADe.

The session will take place on:

Monday, 29th June 2015, from 03:00 PM to 05:00 PM (registration from 2:30 PM)

followed by refreshments

at the Residence of France (2/50E Nyaya Marg, Chanakyapuri, New Delhi – 110021)

You are cordially invited to attend (or send a representative) and requested to RSVP to: francois-joseph.schichan@diplomatie.gouv.fr.
